Grief to Hope is a 6-week support group for adults who have recently experienced the death of someone special to them. Education and information related to the grief journey will be offered, as well as an opportunity for shared understanding and compassionate support.

Pre-registration is required, and we ask that you be available for at least 5 of the 6 session dates in order to attend.

To register please call:
224-770-2273 or email griefsupport@journeycare.org
